- The Education \(Pupil Registration\) \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2013

In addition, concerning any special category data:

- Conditions a, b, c, and d of UK GDPR – Article 9

Collecting pupil information

We collect pupil information via admissions forms, Common transfer files from county or secure file transfer from previous school.

Pupil data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst most of the pupil information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it requested on a voluntary basis. To comply with the data protection legislation, we will inform you at the point of collection, whether you are required to provide certain pupil information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Where we share pupil data such as school photographs on the school website, on social media or in the local press, you have a choice in this, and we request your consent for this to be shared.

Consent can be withdrawn at any time by contacting the headteacher and asking for pupil photographs not to be shared where public have access.

Storing pupil data

We hold pupil data in line with the recommendations of the Information and Records Management Society <http://irms.org.uk/page/SchoolsToolkit>

In practice this means we hold pupil data until the pupil reaches 25 years of age.

Who do we share pupil information with?

We routinely share pupil information with:

- Schools, colleges, and universities that the pupils attend after leaving us
- Our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- youth support services (pupils aged 13+)
- Excalibur Academies Trust
- School nurse and NHS
- Biometric data
- Exam boards
- Virtual/on-line Learning Environment (VLE) such as Google Classroom, ActiveLearn/ActiveTeach, MyMaths, ParentPay (finance), CPoms (safeguarding), Evolve (trips), MrCarter Maths, Zoom, Microsoft Teams, Office 365.

Aged 14+ qualifications

For pupils enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us a pupil's unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about the pupil's learning or qualifications

Why we regularly share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring.

We are required to share information about our pupils with the (DfE) under regulation 5 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Youth support services

What is different about pupils aged 13+?

Once our pupils reach the age of 13, we also pass pupil information to our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13–19-year-olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- youth support services
- careers advisers

A parent / guardian can request that only their child's name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us. This right is transferred to the child / pupil once he/she reaches the age 16.

Our pupils aged 16+

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of youth support services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13–19-year-olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- youth support services
- careers advisers

A child / pupil once they reach the age of 16 can object to only their name, address and date of birth is passed to their local authority or provider of youth support services by informing us.

Data is securely transferred to the youth support service via an emailed spreadsheet and is stored by BFFC and held for one calendar year.

For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

Department for Education

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections. We are required to share information about our pupils with the Department for Education (DfE) either directly or via our local authority for the purpose of those data collections, under:

We are required by law, to provide information about our pupils to the DfE as part of statutory data collections such as the school census and early years' census. Some of this information is then stored in the NPD. The law that allows this is the Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

To find out more about the pupil information we share with the department, for the purpose of data collections, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

To find out more about the NPD, go to <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>.

The department may share information about our pupils from the NPD with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice, or guidance

The Department has robust processes in place to ensure the confidentiality of our data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access and use of the data. Decisions on whether DfE releases data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of:

- who is requesting the data
- the purpose for which it is required
- the level and sensitivity of data requested: and
- the arrangements in place to store and handle the data

To be granted access to pupil information, organisations must comply with strict terms and conditions covering the confidentiality and handling of the data, security arrangements and retention and use of the data.
