WHAT IS FAB, OR WHAT MIGHT BE DRAB @TWS

1. Hogan Music Performance

Our Year 7 students experienced the thrill of live music this morning, with a performance from the amazing band from Hogan Music. At The Wren we are proud to partner with Hogan Music to offer excellent instrument lessons for our students, delivered by specialist teachers. Interested? Visit here or speak to Mrs Oakman for more information!

2. Book Tokens

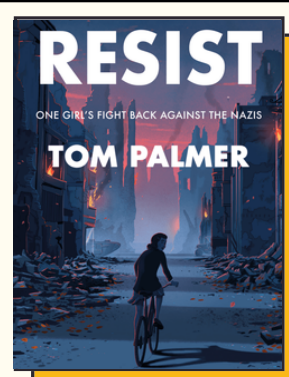

National Book Tokens is hosting a Hidden Books Competition, if you can guess 20 book titles you can win £500 worth of books. Visit the National Book Tokens Website to learn more here, and for lots of other ideas and information.

3. Free Short Story

Visit the Author Tom Palmer's Website here to read his free short story "Silent Night" based on his latest novel "Resist" which is about the late actress Audrey Hepburn and her life in the Netherlands during World War 2.

'Silent Night' is also available to listen to here.

We have lots of Tom Palmer's Books in the Library, and his website has lots of fun resources related to his books.

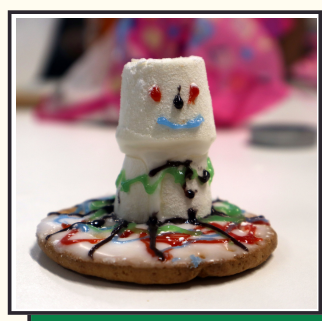

4. Matilda Jr. Cast Announced

After much anticipation, the Matilda Jr. cast list was announced today and will be shared in the bulletin on Monday. A massive congratulations to all the students involved!

5. School Christmas Dinner

The Wren catering team are offering a Christmas dinner on the canteen menu on Wednesday 14th December, which will be available for students to buy at the usual school dinner rate.

6. Wren Winter Showcase

The Performance Department are really looking forward to the Winter Showcase next Tuesday 13th December, following a very successful technical rehearsal yesterday! Don't forget to get your tickets on Parent Pay, and if your child is participating, please ensure you have completed the permission form using the link in the letter. Hot chocolate and Christmas treats will be available to purchase at the showcase, all funds will contribute towards the Year 11 prom fund.

7. End of Term

A reminder that our last day of term is on Tuesday 20th December, all students will be finishing school at 12.20pm. There will be no clubs or enrichment on this day.

8. Sustainable Warmth Grants

Reading residents on a low income can apply now for free home improvements to help them save energy. A range of energy saving improvements can be fitted that require homeowners to pay nothing at all, either before or after the work has been done. Find out more here or read the attached flier.

9. Overdue Library Books

There are still many books which have been borrowed from the Library and have not been returned. If you have any books registered out in your name you will receive a notification slip via your tutor, which will show the name of the book(s). Please have a look at home to see if you can find the book(s) and kindly return them to Mrs Harrison-Lawrence in the Library.

Please do not be concerned if you cannot find the book(s) - come and see Mrs Harrison-Lawrence with your notification slip and she will update the Library system.

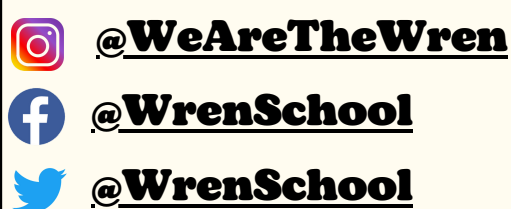

10. Fundraising @ The Wren

The Wren School lottery was set up to raise money and make a difference for our students. It's a fantastic way to bring The Wren's community together, in partnership with our school, and at the same time give something back. On Saturday 10th of December, with delivery in time for Christmas, one lucky supporter will win this MASSIVE PS5 bundle, worth over £1,000! A PlayStation 5 (disc edition) with 3 highly-rated games (FIFA 23, Lego Star Wars, Stray), an extra controller, PS Pulse gaming headset, loads more goodies - AND a 43" 4K Ultra HD TV to play it all on!

Please visit here if you would like to support us.
